

THE AUSTRALIAN CAT FEDERATION (Inc.)

JUDGE'S CODE OF ETHICS

I hereby agree that I will at all times:

- (i) conduct myself in a professional manner which will bring credit to the ACF (Inc.).
- (ii) keep up to date on ACF Breed Standards.
- (iii) act with complete fairness, objectivity and impartiality in decision-making and refrain from making adverse comments on colleagues' decisions.
- (iv) maintain dignity and decorum and mutual respect between colleagues and others.
- (v) be available to exhibitors, breeders, or members of the public to provide information on breeds of cats generally or specifically.
- (vi) not solicit entries to compete under me when judging.
- (vii) not solicit judging assignments.
- (viii) honour the first signed contract for a particular weekend.
- (ix) promptly return contracts to clubs which issued them.
- (x) only officiate at shows conducted by bodies recognised by the ACF (Inc.) [refer By-Law Part 1: Clause 3].
- (xi) not put extra charges [e.g. alcohol, cigarettes, telephone expenses, internet charges unnecessary room service costs] on a host club's hotel account unless specifically instructed to do so by the host club.

I also understand that any proven breach of this Code of Ethics can result in my name being removed from the ACF (Inc.) National Panel of Judges.
