1 NAME

- 1.1 The name of the organisation shall be the Australian Cat Federation (Inc.) Judges' Guild, hereinafter referred to as the Guild.

2 STATUS

- 2.1 The Guild shall be the official body representing the judges of the Australian Cat Federation (Inc.) (ACF). The Guild may offer limited membership to judges from other ACF-recognised bodies. Decisions for carrying out the aims and objects of the Guild shall be made by the members at the Annual General Meeting, or at General/Extraordinary Special Meetings, or by postal or electronic voting in matters of urgency. These decisions are to be recommended to the Australian Cat Federation (Inc.) at its annual conference or as required
- 2.2 2.2 The Guild is a bona fide recommendatory body to the ACF (Inc.) and shall not be registered as a separate incorporated association. The individual Guild members are subject to the Guild's rules. The Guild shall not be regarded as a legal entity by law, nor shall it hold assets other than the Guild bank account(s) and office equipment as deemed appropriate in its own name.

3 DEFINITIONS

- 3.1 For the purpose of these rules and regulations thereunder the following definitions shall apply:
- 3.1.1 COMMITTEE means the executive committee of the Guild.
- 3.1.2 GUILD means the Australian Cat Federation (Inc.) Judges' Guild.
- 3.1.3 SECRETARY means the Secretary of the Guild.
- 3.1.4 MEMBER means a member of the Guild.
- 3.1.5 FEDERATION means the Australian Cat Federation (Inc.).
- 3.1.6 FULL MEMBER means an active judge of the Federation or its affiliated member bodies.
- 3.1.7 AFFILIATE MEMBER means a non-active judge of the Federation or its affiliated member bodies; or an active cadet or junior judge of a Federation affiliated member body.
- 3.1.8 ASSOCIATE MEMBER means a judge of an ACF-recognised Australian body or overseas Cat Control/
Organisation or their ACF-recognised member bodies.
- 3.1.9 HONORARY MEMBER means a retired senior judge emeritus of a Federation-affiliated member body appointed by invitation.

4 OBJECTS

4.1 The objects for which the Guild has been established are:

- 4.1.1 to prepare recommendations on standards, breed varieties, training, examinations, breeding and registration rules, including breed development programs, and all related matters referred to it for presentation to the Annual General Meeting and General/Extraordinary meetings of the Federation.
- 4.1.2 to nominate judges to engage in our national training scheme examinations and panels based on our national and international standards and requirements and to consult on policies affecting the welfare and conditions of ACF judges and trainees.
- 4.1.3 to act as an advisory panel on matters relating to judges' ethics, conduct and behaviour.
- 4.1.4 to organise, where and when necessary, the services of elected judges to prepare submissions on behalf of the Federation for presentation to the Annual General Meeting and General/Extraordinary meetings of the Federation and, when appropriate, to other bodies concerned with the welfare of our judges within the Commonwealth of Australia.
- 4.1.5 to conduct an Annual General Meeting, and if possible, an annual seminar. The Annual General Meeting to be devoted to administration matters, official business, etc.; the seminar to give each member judge an opportunity to discuss/debate special breeds, developmental and others, or any aspects of judging, showing or training;
- 4.1.6 may provide funds to support member bodies with the judges' training (delete the sentence: to establish and maintain a fund for the purpose of assisting member bodies of the Federation with training of judges under the Federation's method of training judges, which requires interstate assignments); and
- 4.1.7 to keep members informed on any aspect of judging, breeding, showing or training by means of a regular publication, format to be evolved as required.

5 POWERS

- 5.1 The decisions of the Guild, to the Federation's Annual General Meeting, shall be in the form of recommendations, and nothing in this Constitution shall affect the authority of the Federation.
